COLD RANGE RULES:

- Rules are per those established at each of the host facility sites. For questions, call the host site location, email the Commissioner, or ask the range/safety officers.
- Guns brought to facilities must be unloaded and in a bag. Preference is a separate, small zipper-closed bag holding pistol, without any magazine or ammo in that small bag, or a pouch that can be in a larger bag,
- No guns out of holsters or bags, unless in safety area or under oversight by a range/safety officer.
- No guns loaded except under range/safety officer oversight, and then only on the firing line.

EQUIPMENT

- Eye and ear protection required.
- All stages positioned for semi-auto firearms with 10-round capacity.
  - Revolvers or lower capacity firearms can be accommodated at range officer's discretion; however, the time is not compensated for choice of firearms during the scenario.
- Holsters
  - A strong side holster is required for Sharpshooter classes and higher.
  - Must cover trigger and hold firearm with enough tension to allow normal task without fear of losing weapon.
  - Law enforcement officers may use duty gear.
  - Shoulder, ankle or cross-draw, and/or Serpa holsters are not allowed due to safety concerns.
- Magazines
  - No more than 10 rounds loaded per mag.
  - Sharpshooter classes and higher permitted reloads, lower classes 10 rounds only.
- Concealment
  - Sharpshooters class events and higher are shot from a concealed hip-position carry.
  - Any garment that covers the pistol and magazines when the arms are held out at 90 degrees to the sides is acceptable.
  - Concealment garment can be a vest, coat, shirt, etc.
